

Celsa Armeringsstål AS OHS Policy statement

Background

Celsa Armeringsstål is the leading supplier of reinforcement steel to the Nordic countries. In the way we manage our activities in the company, there is nothing more important than the health and safety of each individual employee and contractor. It is the legal and important obligation of all individuals to take care of their own health and safety and for the safety of other that may be affected.

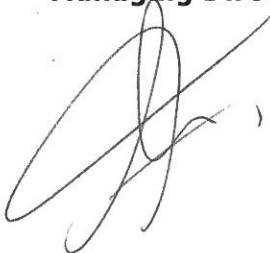

Policy

In our work to prevent injuries and negative health exposures we are dedicated to the following principles made by the World Steel Association:

- All injuries and work-related illness can and must be prevented.
- Managers are responsible and accountable for safety and health performance.
- Employee engagement and training is essential.
- Working safely is a condition of employment.
- Excellence in health and safety drives excellent business results.
- Safety and Health is integrated in all business management processes.

Celsa Armeringsstål aim to be a health promoting work place. We shall comply with applicable rules and regulations regarding health and safety, and the health and safety standards of Celsa Group. We shall work hard in order to improve our health and safety culture in order to reach the best performance in the steel business.

Carles Rovira
Managing Director

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "Carles Rovira", written over a faint, illegible stamp or background.